Dale reported that all but one of the proposals in Area 48 passed from the Springvote on May 16. For further information please see the website. Upcoming: June 13 is the Joy of Service Day and July 30/31 is the NYS informational workshop. Peter Y. also shared that this weekend is the celebration of Founders Day, June 10th. For information on events please visit the website foundersday.org.

Committee Reports:

Corrections: Arthur W. shared info for Pete about corrections. There are no major changes but they are still looking for volunteers for Saturday morning to go into Dannemora.

Answering Service: Matt H. shared that between May 11th and June 6th there were 3 calls to the hot line; 5 males patched through and no hang ups.

Grapevine: Arthur shared that they working with Corrections to get the Grapevine accessible to inmates; Tonya asked for subscriptions for Club 12 or extra copies.

Records: Sue W. said to let her know if any CDC guidelines at meetings have changed; she'll make the corrections. There is no news yet about the Area Convention but Dale suggested she could set up a meeting for anyone interested in being involved. There are no physical schedules yet; maybe at the end of summer they will be printed.

Website: Walter was not available

Newsletter:

Vern said the newsletter is going very well and feel free to contact him to add any information.

All other committees are vacant or absent.

Old Business: None

New Business:

Some topics to consider: when, if we do, to start in-person district meetings? Further discussion next month. Also Peter Y. suggested we consider spending our available funds , perhaps sending some of the money to GSO??

GSR Reports:

Elizabethtown Saturday Courage to Change: Arthur said attendance has been good; they had a group conscience recently as to where to send money.

Diamonds: Sharon says they are doing well; on July 1st they are going hybrid for all meetings. Venmo is working well for them for contributions.

Wilmington/Ausable: Peter Y. said all is going well.

Keeseville: Dale reported they have been open for 6 weeks and attendance is up a bit. They follow state CDC guidelines as they meet in a state building.

KISS Plattsburgh: Vern said they no longer use masks and everything has pretty much returned to normal.

Tupper Keeping it Simple: Jackie said there are still in person meetings 3 times a week and although attendance is small some summer people are returning. No masks are worn at the meetings but contact tracing is still in place.

One Day At a Time: Sue said the meetings are leaving the Baptist church at the end of July and perhaps going back to St. Bernard's.

Paradox Group/Lake Placid: John R. reported the attendance is picking up but they are functioning near prudent reserve level; they are discussing changes to the CDC guidelines.

Bloomington KISS: Renee shared the group is meeting on Mondays at 8 pm and also at 7 pm on zoom.

Spiritual Foundations: Tonya shared that on July 2nd all meetings are going hybrid.

We Agnostics: Josh said they are still following CDC guidelines.

Awakenings: Ed said there were 18 people at the Saturday meeting and they have also started contributions; there is no contact tracing or mask wearing.
