DCM Report: Dale asked if anyone had any information the informational workshop. Walter attended and said it was very well attended and it was very informative about service opportunities.

Dale said he did not yet see very much information on the Hope Rocks Festival coming up; He also mentioned the 20th Annual Greater Plattsburgh Friends of Bill Picnic is coming up on August 29 at Point Au Roche State Park, starting at 10 am. There will be a speaker meeting at 4:15 pm. For more details please see the district newsletter.

Dale also said Sue W. sent an email of when the next Area Convention planning meeting will be: Thursday, August 12, at 6 pm on zoom. Meeting ID: 926 5681 3415 Password: 007178

Committee Reports:

Answering Service: Matt reported there were 3 male calls patched; 4 female calls patched; 5 messages for volunteers; 2 messages for the Hot Line; zero hang ups
(thanks again, Matt, for posting these numbers in the chat for me—jb)

Grapevine: Arthur had an updated subscriptions report. He said he was trying to get the price break on literature for new subscriptions. He had 5 new subscriptions for outpatient/treatment facilities.

Website: Walter said he is putting updates about the convention and the newsletter on the website.

All other committees were either vacant or the chairs not present.

Old Business: Dale said he was not sure what the status of printed schedules was at this time.

New Business: Peter Y. has submitted a detailed proposal of revision to the D10 service manual on the subject of Section 1V C 2 Accessibility for All Alcoholics. He outlined "...the primary focus is to aid groups in overcoming barriers 'whether those are mental, physical, geographic, cultural, or other factors that vary among people'". For further details please see Peter's email or the Area 48 website, Inclusivity.

We will vote on this proposal next month.

GSR Reports:

AuSable Forks/Wilmington: Peter Y. said AuSable will probably require masks soon and may go back on Zoom. Wilmington's attendance has been low.

Elizabethtown, Saturday Night/Courage to Change: Arthur said attendance has been good.

Saranac Lake One Day at a Time: Chuck said all is staying the same.

We Agnostics: Walter said they are doing well.

Awakenings: Edward said they have added some meetings so there are now nine meetings a week.

Tupper Lake: Jackie said the three meetings a week are still meeting but attendance is small. Contact tracing is still in effect as well as a communal basket for the 7th Tradition donations instead of passing the basket.

Spiritual Foundations: Tonya shared that on August 24th the Tuesday night Big Book meeting will be in person only

Diamonds in the Rough: Sharon shared they now are maskless and have coffee.

Keeseville: Dale said there are no changes; they follow state CDC guidelines although many attendees are recommending returning to masks; attendance is good.

Contributions may be made for the 7th Tradition: District10treasurer@aahmbny.org
