Area Newsletter was sent to all; please look over for lots of information

Area Inventory Day is November 19th.

ADK Cluster (us) is hosting the January Orientation Day which is virtual and is being held on January 21st. Volunteers are needed. This is a good opportunity to learn about district positions of service and especially for those rotating into new positions.

John W. is having a "Treasure Hunt" meeting at 2 pm on Sundays via zoom. Use One Day At a Time evening ID (727 793 0127) and password (375818)

Voting Assembly results:

Budget passed

Scholarship funds not passed...more discussion needed

Trifold pamphlet passed

Committee Chair Reports:

Inclusivity: Peter Y.

Peter is speaking after the Plattsburgh meeting this Saturday. He also suggested that he spend a few minutes explaining the concepts of Inclusivity at the next district 10 business meeting.

Answering Service: Matt (absent)

Corrections: Pete M.

Pete shared all is consistent and stable for now.

Grapevine: Renee A.

Literature prices are going up in January. Also shipping is free right now. A new Grapevine book is available called "Fun in Sobriety".

Newsletter: Vern

The Newsletter is available to all and GSR's are encouraged to print out a copy for their groups.

Records: Matt (absent)

PI/CPC: Rob

Rob is now able to spend more time on committee work. He is open to new ideas. Deirdre also shared she has divided up boxes of pamphlets to three areas in our district for distribution. She brainstormed ideas with her group as to healthcare facilities that might be open to receiving pamphlets. There is a 6:30 pm meeting before the district business meeting for anyone who would like to help brainstorm, distribute, etc. helpful information to community settings in their area.
